

You said “ Have you heard of linked-in”

We did: Reviewed our CIAG plans and included it in our drop down days

You said: “Student reports can be difficult to understand”

We did: Improved the headings on student reports and made changes to the colour coding of grades/levels

You said “How are you using technology”

We said: We have an ICT action plan and are developing a new VLE. We are investigating the use of mobile technology in the academy”

Parents’ Forum Actions 2013-2014

You said: “We like to meet the staff that teach our children”

We did: Review the dates of subject open evenings

You said “ Are students doing enough homework?”

We did: Produced a clip explaining how to use doddle and set up doddle stations on parent’s evenings. We uploaded documents on how to support your child with homework to the academy website

We are investigating the use of managing homework via SIMS

You said: “We don’t always receive the letters you send home”

We did: Promote the use of the academy twitter feed and regularly update the academy website